An Intentional Perspective: Lessons in Resilience
Tomorrow, Wednesday, May 6
Dr. Scott Taylor

Amid significant uncertainty and life challenges, is it the optimist that prevails? Join Scott Taylor for a conversation about perspective, and Monroe tools that will help us remain hopeful, yet realistic during current circumstances.

Register to Attend

Tips for Flourishing in Uncertain Times

May 13
Patty Ray Avalon

Whatever changes may present themselves in the next few months, what seems most important to understand during these or any other times of uncertainty, is to develop our expanded human potential. Quite possibly, that's the reason why we're living through these times …

Register to Attend

The Silver Lining: Personal Growth Through Life Challenges

May 20
Dr. Charlene Nicely

Challenges are an inevitable part of life. Some people face the most unthinkable tragedies and somehow come out on the other side stronger. In times of struggle, there are ways we can transform these challenges into opportunities for self-growth.

Register to Attend

Cosmic Upheaval: How Each Astrological Sign Can Triumph in these Turbulent Times

May 27
Nancy McMoneagle

Join past Monroe president and executive director Nancy "Scooter" McMoneagle for an astrological look at the major planetary influences affecting us now and into the foreseeable future. And more...

Register to Attend

Energy Healing in Times of Challenge

June 3
Dr. Joe Gallenberger

Energy healing directs nonphysical energy toward highest body, mind and spirit potential for oneself and others. This webinar will focus on energy tips and tools for this challenging time.

Register to Attend

See what's happening on our social sites

434-361-1500 | Monroe Institute® | 365 Roberts Mountain Road | Faber, Virginia 22938 USA

Subscription Preferences

Forward to a Friend